

Philanthropy

Originally from Pennsylvania, Joel splits his time between different parts of the globe with his family, who are dedicated to their community both at home and abroad. Over the years, Joel has started and participated in various charitable initiatives, including projects focused on education, infrastructure, nature conservation and more. He has also served as President of the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh, where he raised funds for three Roberto Clemente Health Clinics in LaReforma, Nicaragua. He has also served as District Governor for the Rotary Clubs of Western Pennsylvania and as Rotary International's 'President's Representative'.

Children and Education

Community outreach