Latest update: 7 April 2025

The Distribution Window for the Final Dividend closed on 7 April 2025.

Digital assets remaining in accounts held by creditors whose Proof of Debt (“POD”) has been admitted (“Proven Creditors”) by the Joint Liquidators (“JLs”) are no longer available to be withdrawn from the Bittrex Global platform and are considered “Undistributed Assets” in accordance with Bermuda law.

Undistributed Assets will be converted into US dollars, or in the alternative, a digital asset (stablecoin) of equivalent value, and will no longer be available for in specie distribution.

The JLs will transfer the total value of the Undistributed Assets to the Bermuda Accountant General (“BM AG”) where it will be held in the Consolidated Fund.

The JLs will provide the BM AG with a certificate of assets owing to each Proven Creditor, valued at the best rate available as at the date(s) of liquidation from digital asset form, less any commissions and fees applicable at the time of conversion. Digital assets that lack an effective trading market, are no longer supported by a relevant blockchain, or otherwise cannot be liquidated will be deemed to have no dollar value and cannot be claimed from the JLs or the BM AG in dollars or in specie.

Any person claiming to be entitled to any money paid into the Consolidated Fund may apply to the Accountant General for payment.
